Our Fees and Services

We charge fixed fees, agreed in writing before any work starts, so you know the full cost of our work from the outset. Home Office fees and other third-party costs are paid on top, and we set these out below. Our fees are not subject to VAT.

01

Who will do your work

All work is carried out and supervised by a solicitor of England and Wales who was admitted in 2019 and has worked in UK immigration and asylum law since 2016. The solicitor holds an LLM and the Law Society's Supervising Senior Caseworker accreditation for immigration and asylum. The solicitor is supported by trained caseworkers and administrative staff, whose work is supervised by the solicitor.

02

How we charge

- Free eligibility call: a short call to understand your situation and tell you whether we can help.
- Initial consultation: £75 for a telephone consultation with advice on your case. This is credited against our fee if you instruct us within 30 days.
- Fixed fee: we confirm your fixed fee in writing in our client care letter before you instruct us. The fees below are for standard applications. If your case is more complex, for example because of a previous refusal, a criminal record or an unusual immigration history, we will quote a higher fixed fee before you agree to go ahead.
- Payment: fees are usually paid in advance, before we prepare your application.

Other costs you may pay

These are paid by you, either directly or through us, and are not included in our fee:

- Immigration Health Surcharge: usually £1,035 per adult per year of the visa, and £776 per year for children under 18. It does not apply to visitor visas or EU Settlement Scheme family permits.
- Priority or super priority service: optional faster decisions, where the Home Office offers them.
- Visa application centre fees: some centres charge for appointments or optional services.
- Translations: documents not in English or Welsh must be translated, usually costing £30 to £60 per page.
- English language test, tuberculosis test or DNA test: where your route requires them.
- For sponsors: the Certificate of Sponsorship fee (£525 for each Skilled Worker) and the Immigration Skills Charge, which is paid for each year of sponsorship.

05
